Treasurer's report total $13,017.90. A check was written for $844.00 for the balance of the t-shirts and $8.00 was collected at the farmer's market. Vicki handed Cheryl $210 - $15 donations and $195 for t-shirts.

Audience of citizens:

Tammy Daigneault – looking to help and will send a letter to the selectman

Al Binder – looking to help

Old Business:

The t-shirts are going okay. We've sold 13 so far, the blue color is the most popular. Would like to get some to the town hall to sell. Vicki will pick some up from the farmer's market this Sunday and get them to Beth on Tuesday.

Poster from farmer's market brought in by Diana looking to update or add information. Discussion had and decided to keep the poster.

Ekonk Hill Turkey Farm is willing to do the logo in the corn maze but was wondering if things could be added on the side. A suggestion was made to use the designers name or a form of her name. Rachel will check with the family. Also, the owners were wondering if the committee will pre-sell tickets to offset their cost they said would be around $5,000. They said they would give us $1 per ticket sold. The committee has agreed to pre-sell tickets and ask the library and town hall to help, along with sending fliers through the school.

The recreation committee coin design contest is in the works. Tammy Van Lanen is organizing.

Beth and Cheryl will work on getting the King's War people confirmed to come in May 2021.

Vicki emailed Jim Steinhagen to ask for help on organizing the re-enactment.

New Business:

Tammy will look into producing a calendar using old and new photos. Vicki will ask Eagle Eye LLC (Ryan) if he will share his pictures.

Rachel spoke with Julie Soto about the pictures in the green book. Julie was going to check with the historical society to see if we can do a collaboration. Possibly a magnet.

Murder Mystery Dinner – Vicki checked further into it. A kit is affordable around $50-$75. The thoughts were to ask high schoolers and college students to play as actors. Use the firehouse and ask Kimon to donate food. Vicki will bring a list of kits and descriptions for next month.

Cheryl will contact Jack to see if the map is done and if we can use the map for the bandanas.

Next meeting will be October 28th at 6:00pm
If anything comes up, we have email.

Motion made to adjourn the meeting at 7:38pm Ayes have it.
