

VOLUNTOWN PUBLIC LIBRARY
PO Box 26 107 Main Street
Voluntown, CT 06384

PUBLIC RELATIONS

The Voluntown Public Library will strive to provide active participation of citizens of all ages in various services through programs offered by the library or in cooperation with another town agency.

The offering of programs is dependent on available staff, Friends of the Library, and adequate funding.

The Library Board of Trustees and the library staff will be expected to convey an understanding of the library's objectives to governing officials, civic leaders, and the general public. The Board urges its own members and the other staff to realize that s/he represents the library in public contact and good relations will yield good public support.

Adopted Board of Directors: 10/14/99
Reviewed: 09/10/2020