Audience of citizens:

None

Old Business:

Jim could not reach Steinhagen or Tom Sweet.

Chery hasn't heard from the contact for the re-enactment group of confirmation. She left a message with Ned from the Native American portion of the re-enactment and wait for return call.

There was a mention of Hinsdale Hens. www.hinsdalesgarrisoncompany.org

Beth sent out the donation requests to the banks and have not hear from any.

Vicki contact Thelemic about the hats but no response.

Jim said Steve Yeaw and all set and willing to come with his machinery

New Business:

A discussion was had to send local businesses for donations.

Beth will look for the Business Directory and the letter Rachel wrote

Jim will contact Jack Wesa for an updated list.

Cheryl will look for letter as well, edit it and forward for the committee to look at it.

Beth to check with Rachel on the corn maze and when they need the design for next year's maze.

Brainstorm a program for the weekend of the celebration

Contact Melinda Bryan to see if the Rec committee is still organizing the fish tournament.

Coins are in. 300 ordered. They are stored at the town hall. Advertisement should be made asap to start selling. Coins cost #3.33 each. Can sell for $10 each. There are only 300 available.

T-shirt update – bought $1,520.50 worth and sold $392.00 worth. These t-shirts need to be pushed. Vicki suggested posting a question on the Facebook page. And the winner receives a shirt with pickup at town hall. Need to find some facts and ask questions on Facebook. Maybe ask Karen Britt?

An interesting interruption...the meeting was hacked and three people entered. Julie quickly deleted the three who entered but not without some interesting comments from the person.

Next meeting moved to May 18 at 6:00pm due to Memorial Day being the week of regular meeting.

Motion made to adjourn at 6:59 pm by Cheryl and second by Vicki.

Meeting adjourned at 6:59 pm.
