

Town of Voluntown Ordinance on Payment of Real & Personal
Property Taxes

Town of Voluntown taxes for real and personal property may be paid via cash, money order, personal check, bank check or certified check, and are subject to the following limitations and restrictions:

- I) Payment of all real or personal property taxes, which have not been referred for collection by the Tax Collector, may be paid by any of the aforementioned methods. Any payments made pursuant to this provision, which are dishonored by the taxpayers' depository financial institution, are subject to assessment of a handling charge by the Town of Voluntown, as well as to criminal prosecution.
- II) Payment of delinquent real or personal property taxes, which have been referred for collection by the Tax Collector, shall only be paid in cash, money order, bank check or certified check. In addition to the collection for the overdue taxes and penalties, the taxpayer will also be required to pay any collection costs, including legal fees, incurred by the Town.
- III) Payment of delinquent personal property taxes owed on motor vehicles, which have not been referred by the Tax Collector for collection, shall only be paid by cash, money order, bank check or certified check. Upon payment in the foregoing manner, the Tax Collector shall issue a clearance for the taxpayer to provide to the Department of Motor Vehicles in order to register the vehicle(s).
- IV) Payment of delinquent personal property taxes owed on motor vehicles, which have been referred by the Tax Collector for collection, shall only be paid by cash, money order, bank check or certified check. In addition to the collection for the overdue taxes and penalties, the taxpayer will also be required to pay any collection costs, including legal fees, incurred by the Town. Upon payment in the foregoing manner, the Tax Collector shall issue a clearance for the taxpayer to provide to the Connecticut Department of Motor Vehicles in order to register the vehicle(s).
